Who can apply

Eligible applicants include national and local NGOs, international and national CSOs, Red Cross/Red Crescent National Societies, academic and research institutions, and other community-based or non-profit entities. Applicant organisations must be not-for-profit and operate in the Caribbean region.

WFP may assign some or all activities according to context, response needs, resources and the implementation plan, and may select multiple cooperating partners with complementary strengths. Each applicant need not cover every listed activity.

Priorities
